

DIRECTOR: TERENCE CARTER

Terence has directed the Faringdon Singers since September 1993. Before that he accompanied the Singers, his first concert with them being in June 1979. Educated at Jesus College Oxford, he played an active part in the musical life of the College and University as organist and accompanist. He subsequently gained the Fellowship and Choirmaster's Diplomas of the Royal College of Organists. He was Director of Music at Wantage Choral Society from 1982–2003. He accompanied chapel services at Pembroke College Oxford and was organist and sometime conductor of the Christ Church Cathedral Voluntary Choir (now the Cathedral Singers). He also played the organ at Hereford Cathedral in concerts given by combined City church choirs over a number of years, and has performed at a wide variety of local venues.

Terence was appointed Chairman of the Oxfordshire District Committee of the Royal School of Church Music in 2006 and Secretary of the Oxford Area Committee (covering Oxfordshire, Berkshire, and Buckinghamshire) in 2007.

ACCOMPANIST: JOHN RIDGWAY

John studied at Dartington College of Arts. After taking a postgraduate certificate in education at Durham University, he taught in Kent, before accepting the post of Director of Music at the Toowoomba Preparatory School in Australia. He studied organ with Keith Warner and John Wellingham and has taken part in master classes with Christopher Hogwood, Kenneth Gilbert and Xavier Darasse. He also studied in the organ class at Utrecht and Toulouse conservatoires. He has been the Director of Music at St. Hugh's School, Faringdon, since 1985 and is the Organist of Wantage Parish Church.
