

St. Mary's Church, Uffington

Friday 18th March at 8.00pm

Concert by The Faringdon Singers

Conductor: Terence Carter
Accompanist: Myles Hartley

Motet: Alma Dei creatoris, K277.....Mozart

Cantata for Easter: Christ lay in Death's dark prison, BMV4 ..... Bach

1. Sinfonia
2. Chorus: Christ lay in death's dark prison
3. Sopranos and Contraltos: O'er death no man could prevail
4. Tenors: Now Jesus Christ, the Son of God
5. Chorus: How fierce and dreadful was the strife
6. Bass solo: The Paschal Victim here we see
7. Sopranos and Tenors: So keep we all this holy feast
8. Chorale: With grateful hearts we all are met
Hallelujah!

Soloist: Steve Munday

~~~~~
Interval
~~~~~

Musick's Jubilee ..... Andrew Carter
(Poem read by Sally Edgington)

1. First was the world as one great Cymbal made
2. Jubal first made the wilder Notes agree
3. He called the Ecchoes from their sullen Cell
4. What passion cannot Music raise and quell?
5. Each sought a consort in that lovely place
6. There is sweet music here that softer falls
7. Then Musick, the Mosaique of the Air
8. Victorious sounds! Yet here your Homage do
Hallelujah!

Soloists: Maggie Marchant
Rebekah Callow, Sandy Morris, Heather Nisbet, Debra Warner

Motet: Sancta Maria, mater Dei, K273 ..... Mozart

There will be a retiring collection in aid of Humanitarian Relief in The Sudan